Dedication

St. Wendelin High School
533 North Countyline Street
Fostoria, Ohio
June 1, 1958

Dear Mom and Dad,

Having completed this book of cherished memories, we come upon the task of its dedication. It must be given to someone who is the most deserving of all. We need not delve too deeply into thought to determine the one to whom this book belongs. Yes, it is you, Mom and Dad —the people highest on our list.

We only wish we had more to offer than this the Thirtieth Volume of the FOSLIN. Indeed, our little volume is a meager return for all the wonderful things you have done for us. Though at times we are slow to show it, we are grateful to you for your guidance, patience, and inspiration. Next to our love for you, this is the most perfect gift we have to offer.

Gratefully,
Your Son

Our House
Fostoria, Ohio
June 1, 1958

Dear Mom and Dad,

It seems to me such a long time ago since you brought me to school for the first time. You seem to think it almost impossible that twelve years have elapsed and that very soon I shall graduate from high school.

Throughout the years, I confess I have taken your love and moral and material support for granted. I review the important events of my life. There were those filled with joy and those tinged with sorrow: my first report card, the first time Sister made me stay after school, my First Holy Communion, eighth-grade graduation, my first formal and high heels, as well as all the other times you were on hand to praise or to scold, to help and encourage me. The time is fast approaching for the big day, June 1, when you will again be on hand to lend your support.

Despite all these gifts, when was the last time I thanked you or told you that I love you. I try but I begin to feel embarrassed and decide I'm too grown-up for that. So as a small token for the thanks and the love I'm much too old to voice, I dedicate to you the story of my career at St. Wendelin, the 1958 FOSLIN.

With all my love,
Your Daughter

Our Lady, Seat of Wisdom, is the Ideal and Inspiration of our Sister Faculty. In her the religious educator finds "all grace of the way and of the truth . . . all hope of life and of virtue" . . . They who have Mary as Inspiration and Ideal know that for them she is the mother of Fair Love, because those who explain her greatness, her glory, and her compassion, "shall have life everlasting."

Student Activities

Doing the high stepping for the St. Wendelin Marching Band is Bob Weber, the Drum Major.

Here are the band members who really give with the "live noise." Members of the percussion section are Eleanor Miller, Paul Baker, and Marquin Weber.

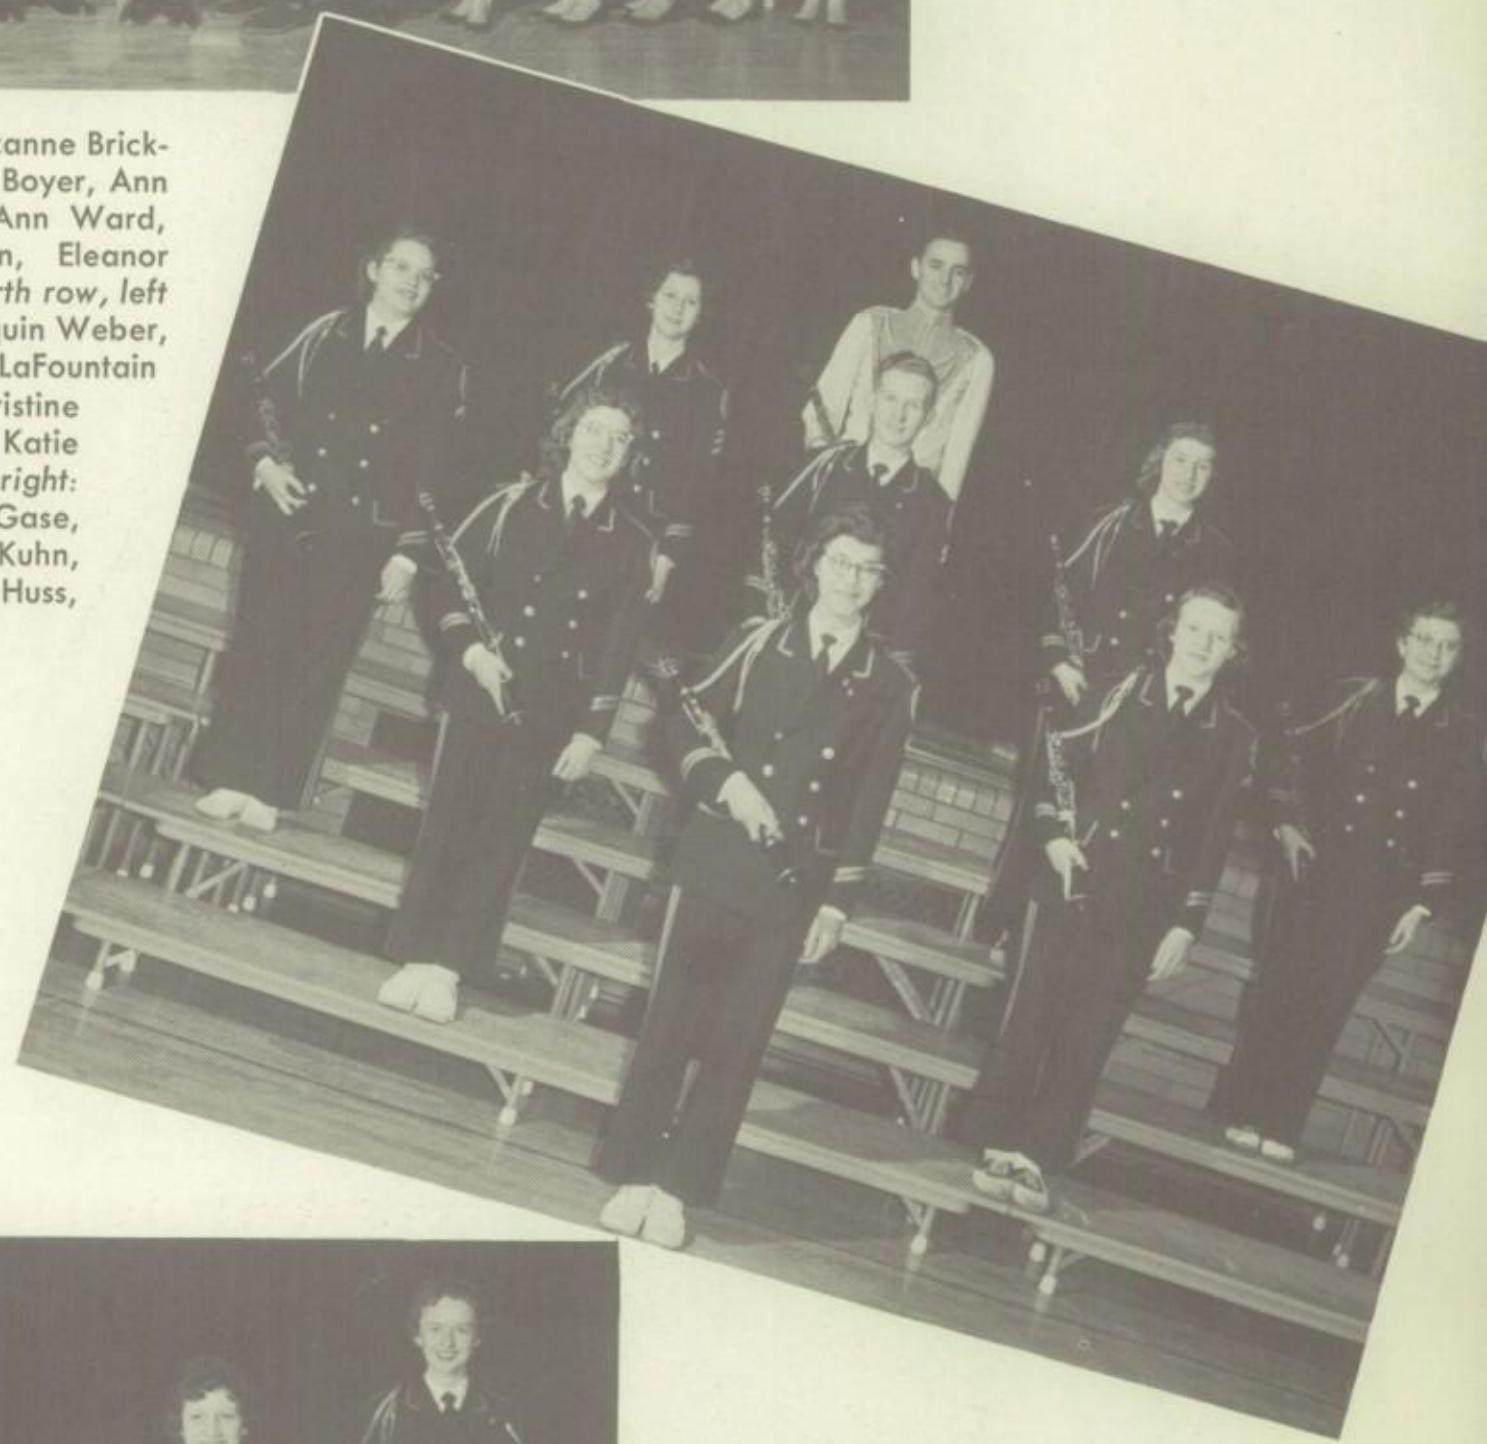

They make beautiful music together. Barb Wolph and Pat Clouse, Glee Club accompanists, practice a duet for Glee Club use.

"Una salus victis, nullam sperare salutem." If this puzzles you, ask one of the St. Wendelin Virgilians to translate. Doris Ann Norris, Linda
Brown, Marilyn Kinn, Jim Peiffer, Joe
Clark, and Tom Schultz listen to Father Hunter's words of wisdom.

Father Schmenk's smiling face and interesting lesson seem to keep his Sophomore Religion class attentive.

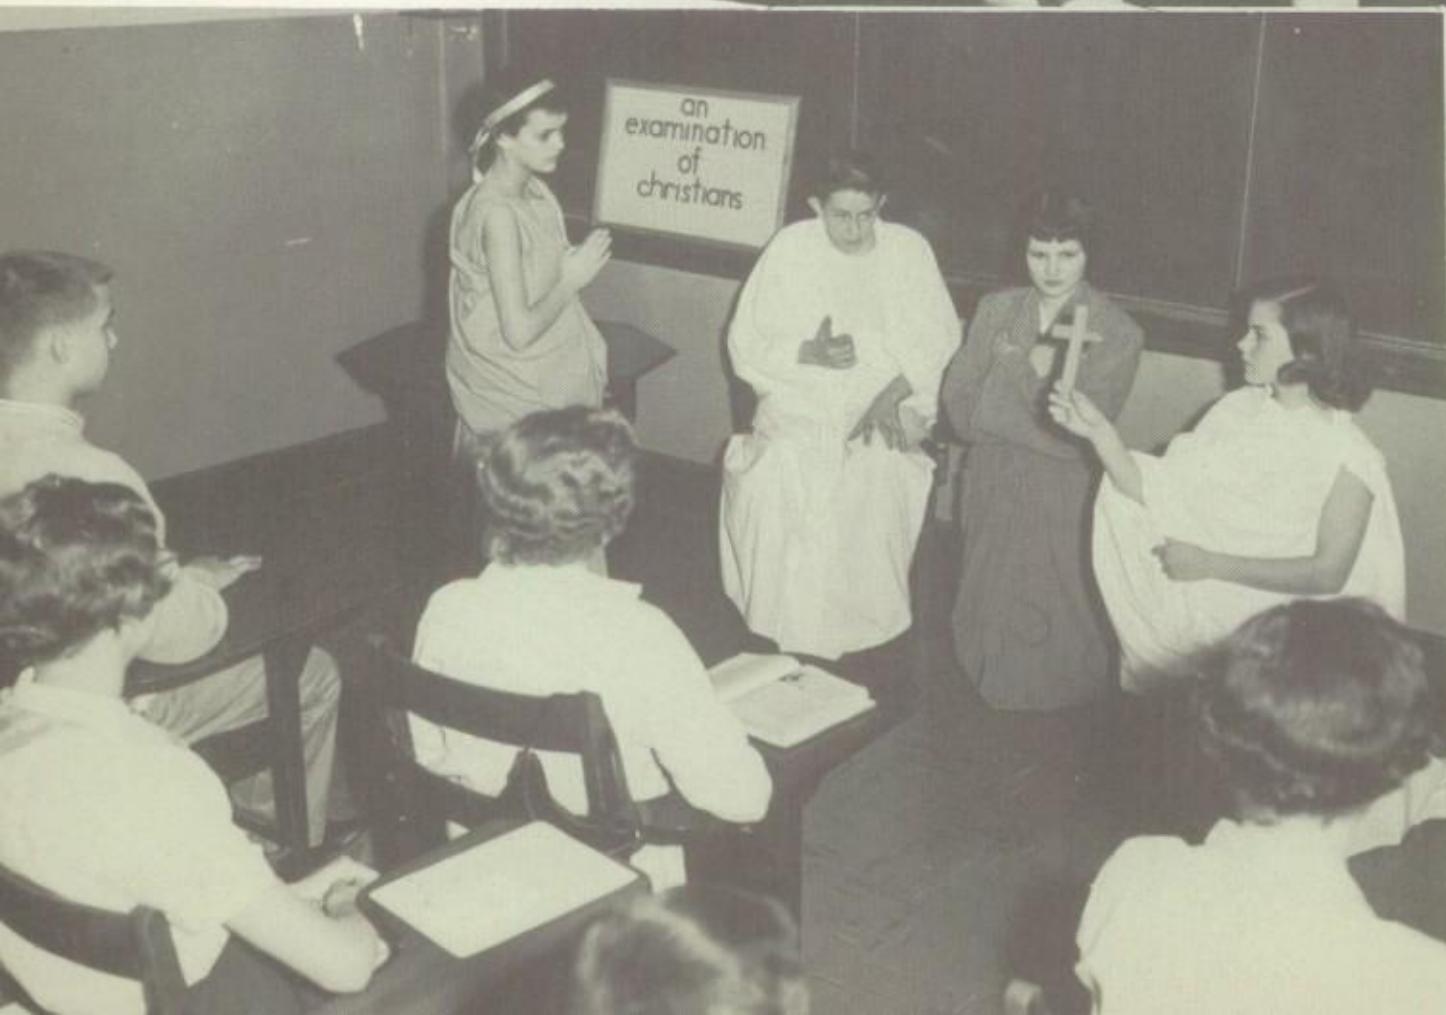

Shades o' St. Patrick! Father
Donnelly uses the old standby, the shamrock, in his discussion of the Blessed Trinity in Freshman Religion.

Joyce Zirger, Mary Ann Stone, Paul Rumschlag, and Larry Tuttle demonstrate that Medieval History requires much research to substantiate and elaborate historical facts.

The Medieval History display on knighthood intrigues William Reinhart. (Those were the days, Bill!!)

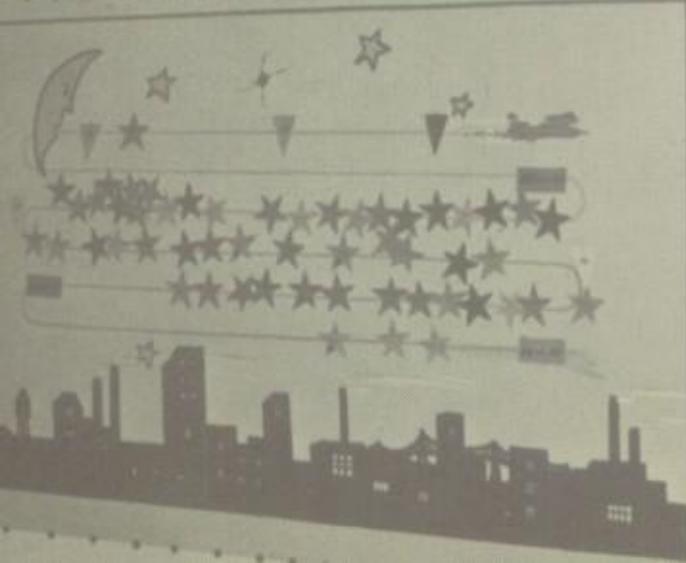

Biology students are kept busy collecting many assorted items. Mike Hagenmaier holds a collection of insects as Kathy Bugner displays her leaf album.

Diagramming sentences is the order fo the day for this Sophomore English Class. Joe Wein-gates, Dave Lee, and Russ Koby explain the infinitive structure for their classmates.

TYPING STARS

This chart keeps the typing stu-dents on their toes as they watch their speed increase.

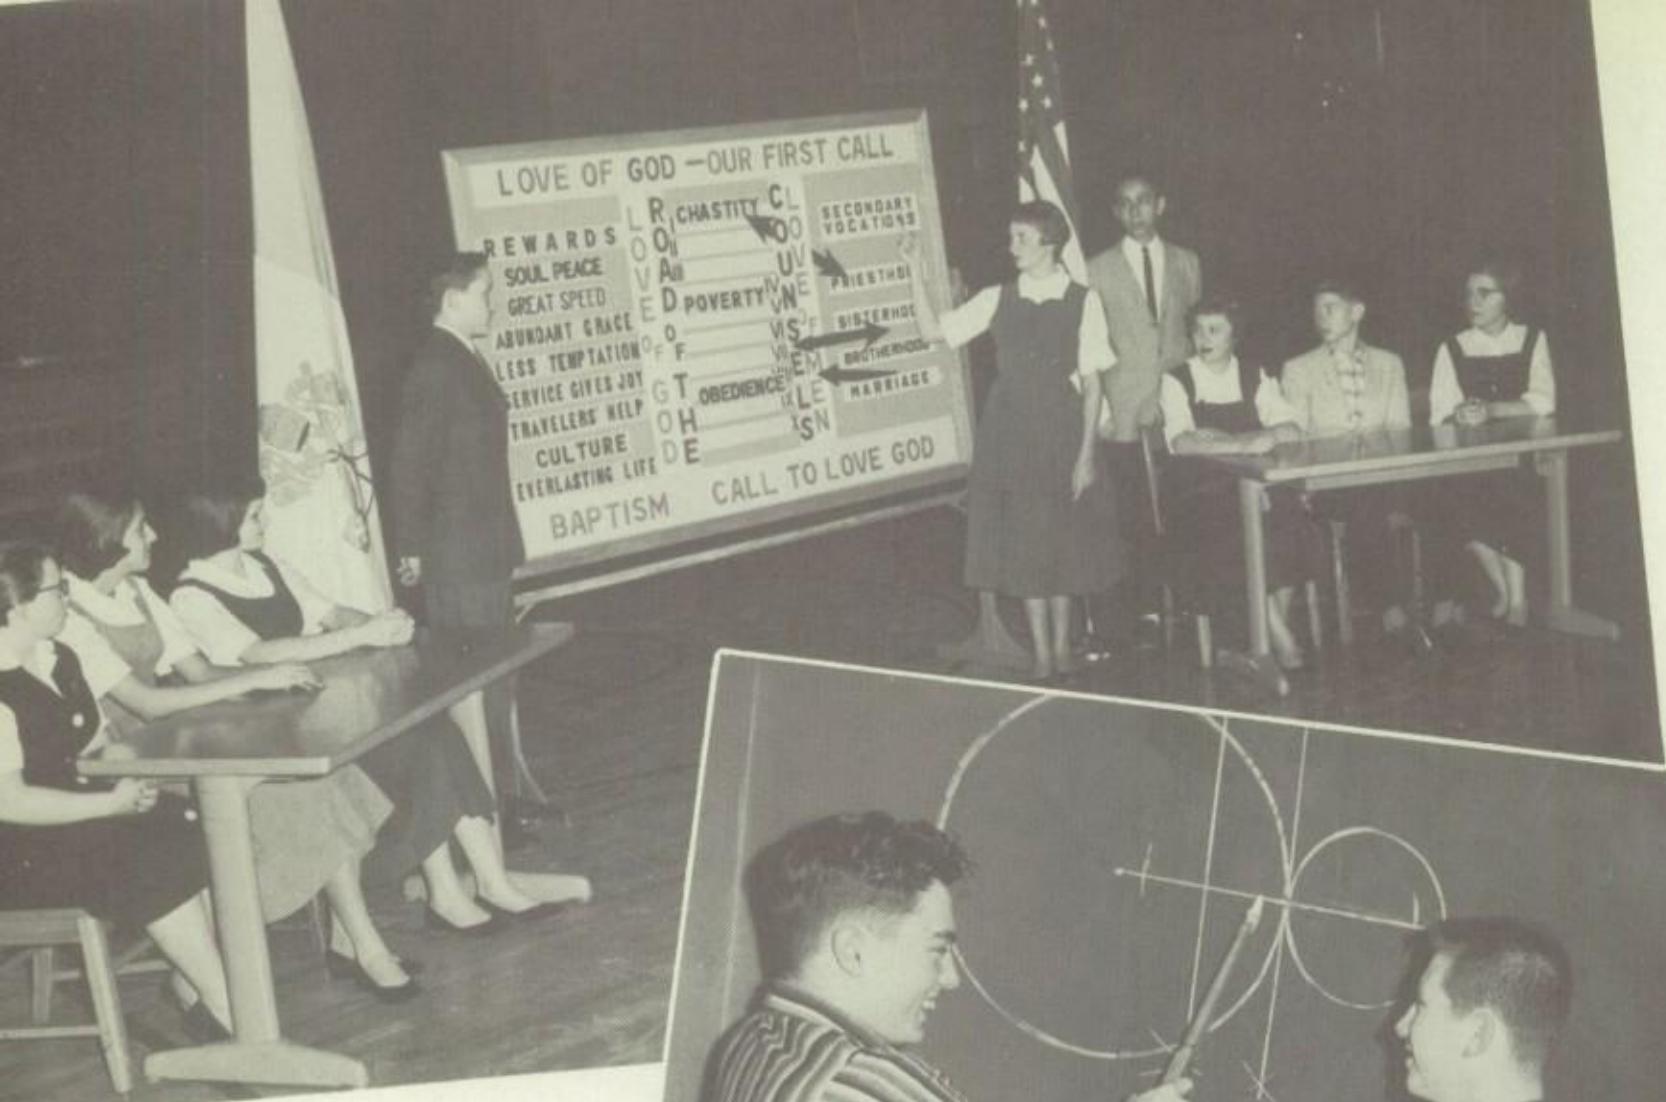

Complete with berets, the French II class captures the spirit of France as well as learns the language. Pictured singing the "La Marseillaise" are Doris Ann Norris, Tom Hagenmaier, Janet Keiffer, Jim Ritzler, Joyce Elchert, Bill Gase, Shirley Williams, and Jon Howbert.

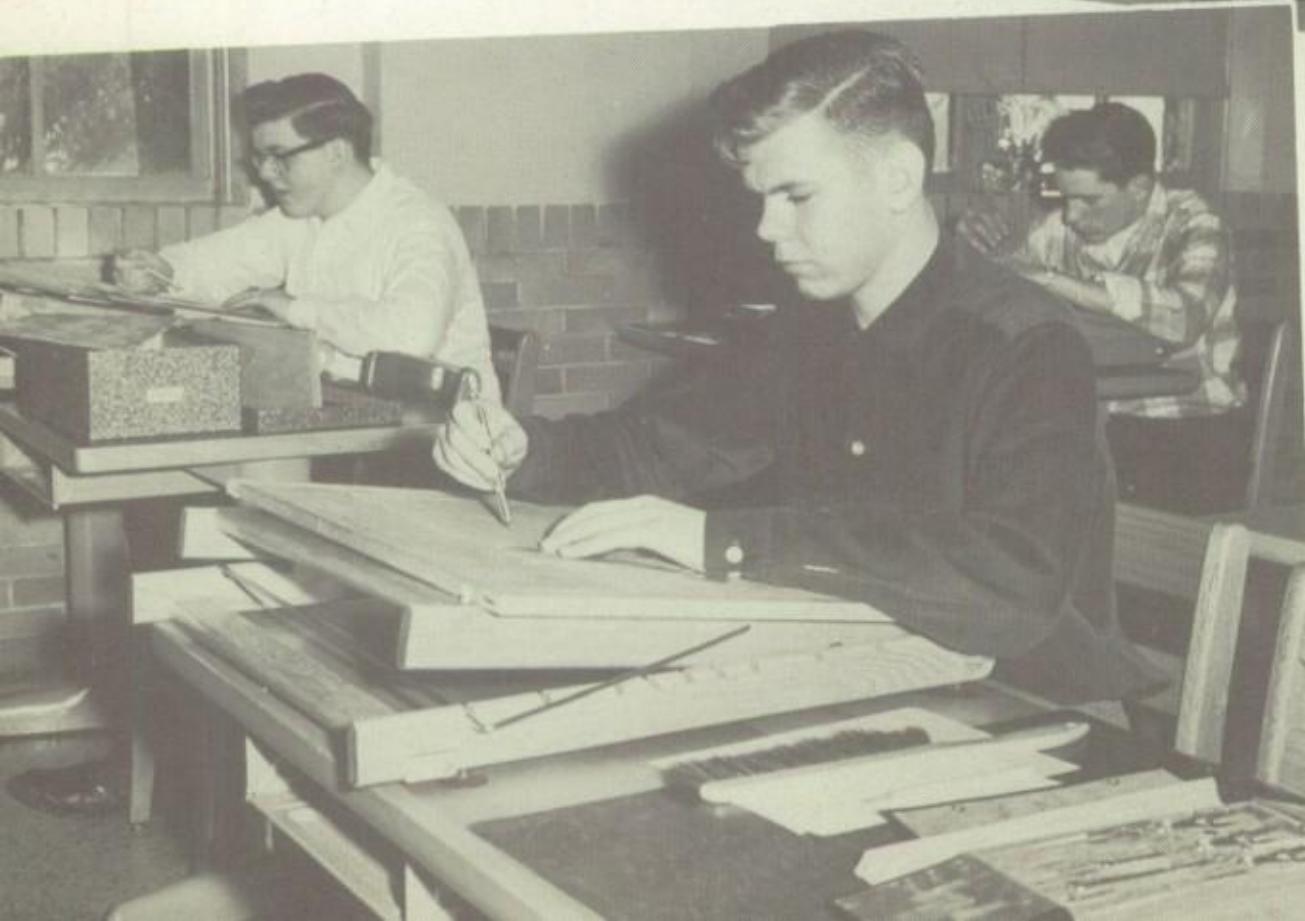

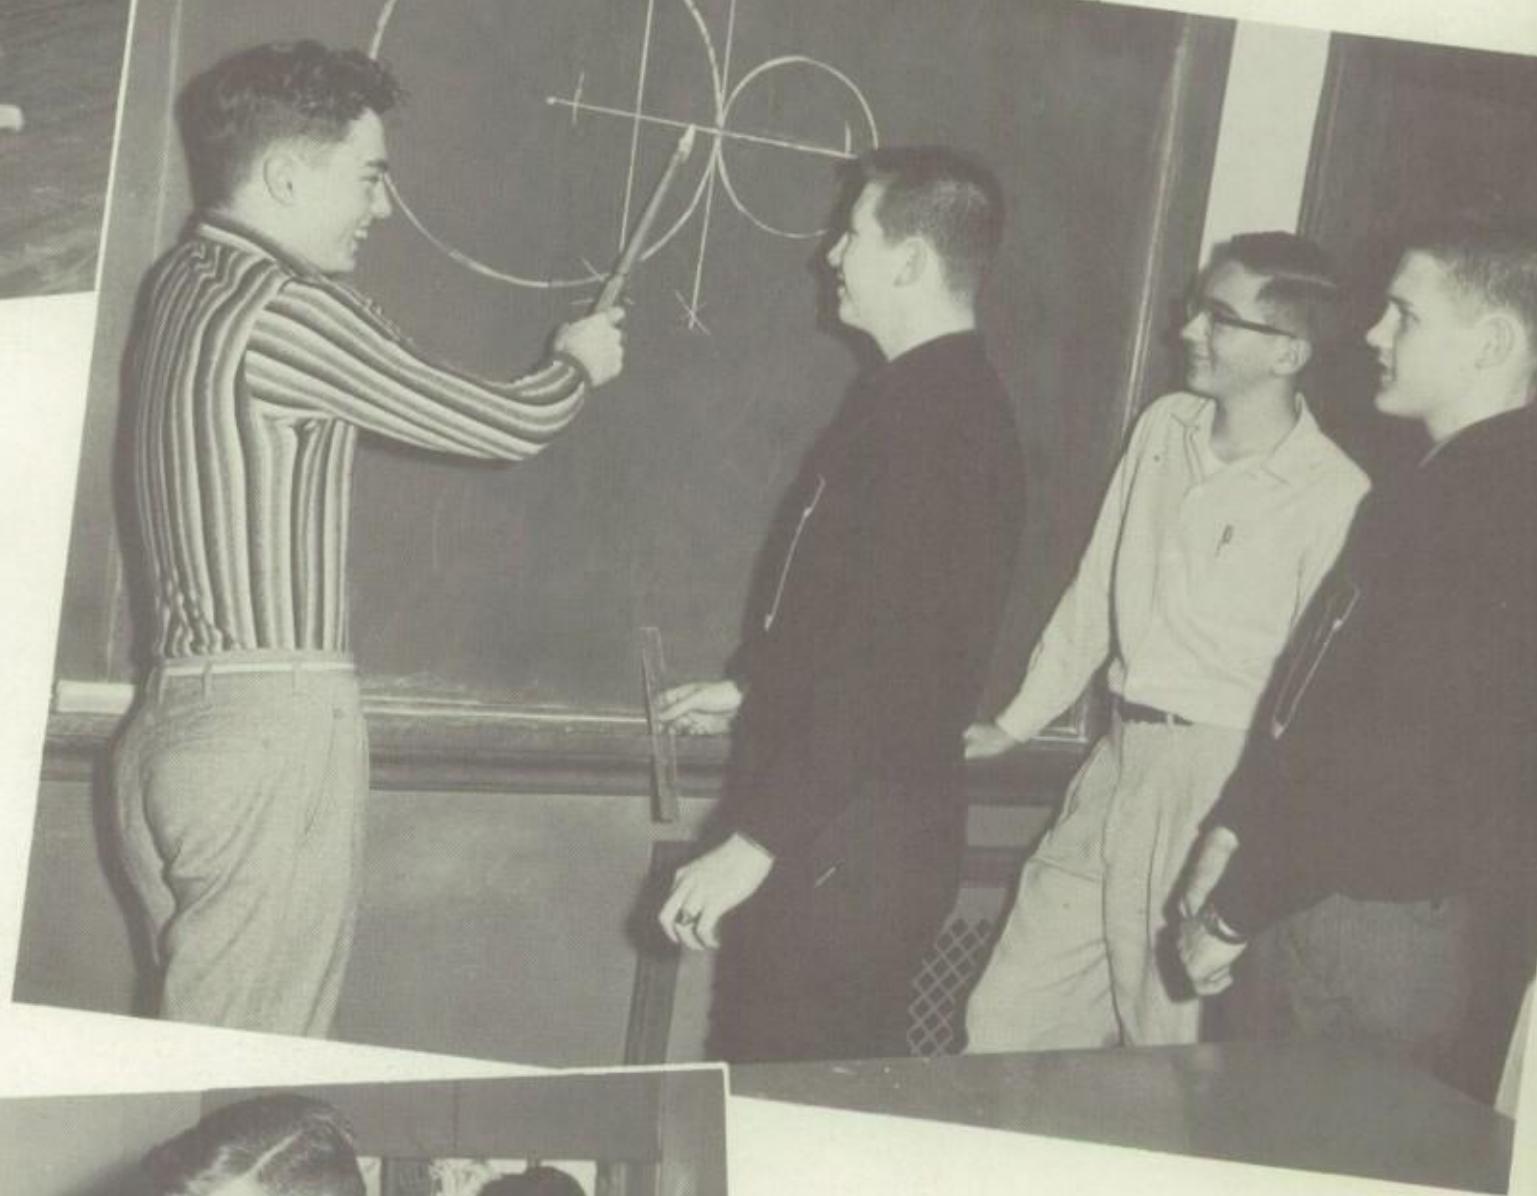

"The secretary will now read the minutes of the last meeting." This is a familiar statement heard in Freshman English as a group of students demonstrate the technique of parliamentary procedure. Left to right: Michael Roberts, Janet Holman, Joseph Lonsway, and Adelina Martinez.

"Are you sure that's correct?" Mr. Vieth asks Paul Brickner as Linda Kelbley finishes another problem and Elaine Williams watches them.

October brought the Vocation Assembly at which the freshman panel discussed the basic theology of vocations in general. Left to right: Virginia Stewart, Sarah Huber, Rose Kitchen, Roger Burns, Rosemary Emerine, Joseph Vargas, Roberta Hay, Dennis Kromer, and Paula Scharf.

Geometry is as simple as x-y-z for these Sophomore boys. Jim Lynch explains to Stu Nibeck, Jim Lonsway, and Jim Faber the details of the problem on the board.

These first-year drafting students take pleasure in the drawing of elementary figures. Slaving over their drawing boards are Jim Miller, Russ Spangler, and Johnny Lonsway.

"Open House" finds Sophomore Catherine Bugner explaining the principle of the Plant Cell to Mrs. Harold Elchert and to Mrs. and Mr. Paul Kintz.

Showing the way in the Courtesy Campaign is Freshman, Nancy Guzman.

Even though their parents may complain that these Senior girls are on the phone half of their waking hours, they get some practice in telephone courtesy during Office Practice. Chris Wolfelt awaits Joyce Reiter's call as Mary Welly, Mary Lonsway, Carol Kuhn, Marilyn Blaser, Linda Cervantes, Sue Brickner, Sue Huss, Dolores Vargas, and Linda Radkey observe.

Their goal—"a Catholic Chronicle in every home." Helping the spread of Catholic literature are these St. Wendelin Crusade leaders. Seated, left to right: June Reinhart, John Lamberjack, Joan Forristell, Tom Wolph, and Mary Jo Barto. Standing, left to right: Jim Weimerskirch, Tom Barto, Marilyn Kinn, Larry Reinhart, Fayeanne Kintz, Tom Flechtner, and Susan Trubey.

These pictures may appear to be examples of abstract art, but according to their titles they are merely biology assignments. Tom Wolph and Elaine Williams display drawings of the Animal and Plant Cells.

PROGRESS CHART

Senior Sewing Circle—Linda Radkey, Linda Cervantes, and Joan Forristell put finishing touches to their new blouses as Dolores Vargas helps Janet Karcher adjust the shoulder line in her sheath dress. Shirley Williams and Sue Huss discuss a measuring problem.

"Please don't feed the animals!" The Second-Year Home Arts class composed of Senior and Junior girls display their assortment of stuffed toys.

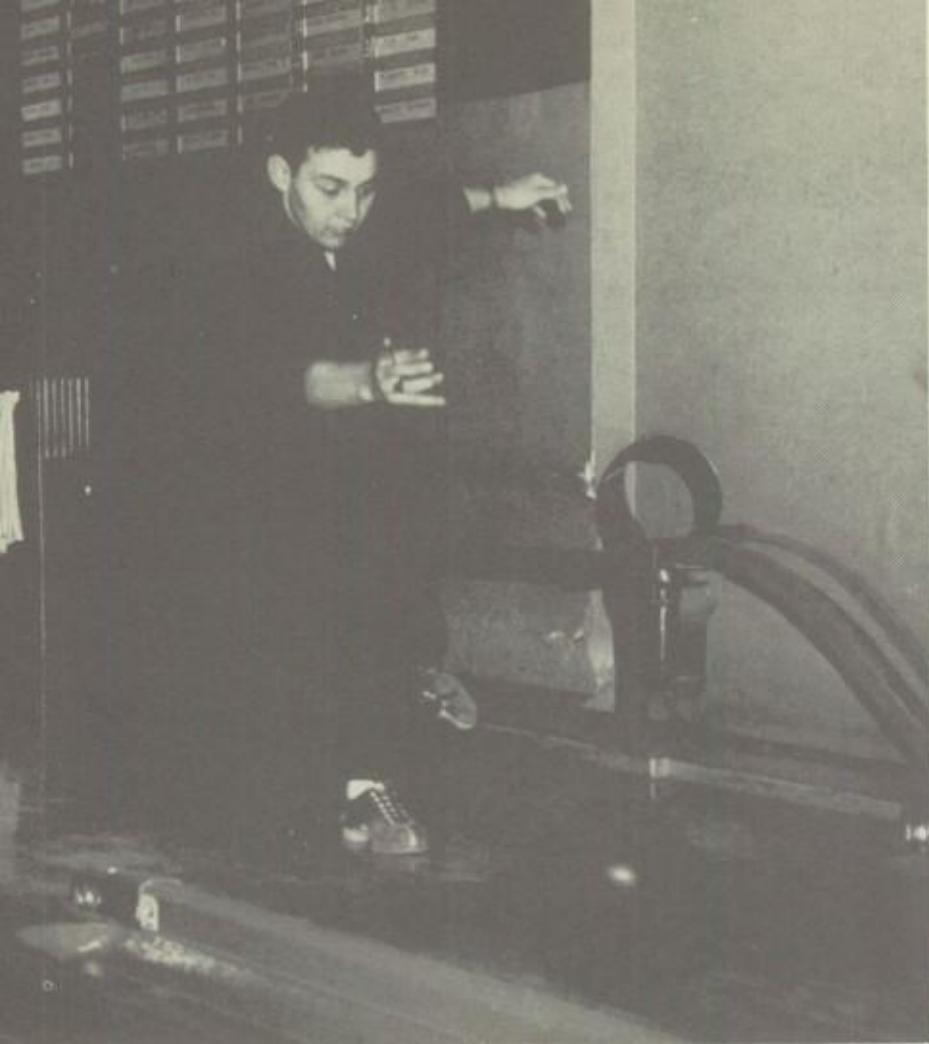

"Long live the Queen!" Linda Radkey, Queen of the Foslin Fantasy, poses for the camera.

Enjoying the Snowflake Swirl and the music of the Dynamoes are three groups of S.W.H.S.'s beautiful "Jills" and handsome "Joes."

Heave-Ho! Ray Huether gives it everything he has as the ball rolls down the lane.

To the Victors! Father Schmenk awards trophies to Joyce Eiter, Sue Brickner, Mary Welly, Rose Kitchen and Ray Huether who comprise the C.Y.O. champion bowling team of which Mary Welly is captain.

Busy making several of their momentous decisions are C.Y.O. officers: Marilyn Blaser, secretary; Shirley Williams, treasurer; John Lamberjack, vice-president; Father Schmenk, moderator; and Tom Hagenmaier, president.

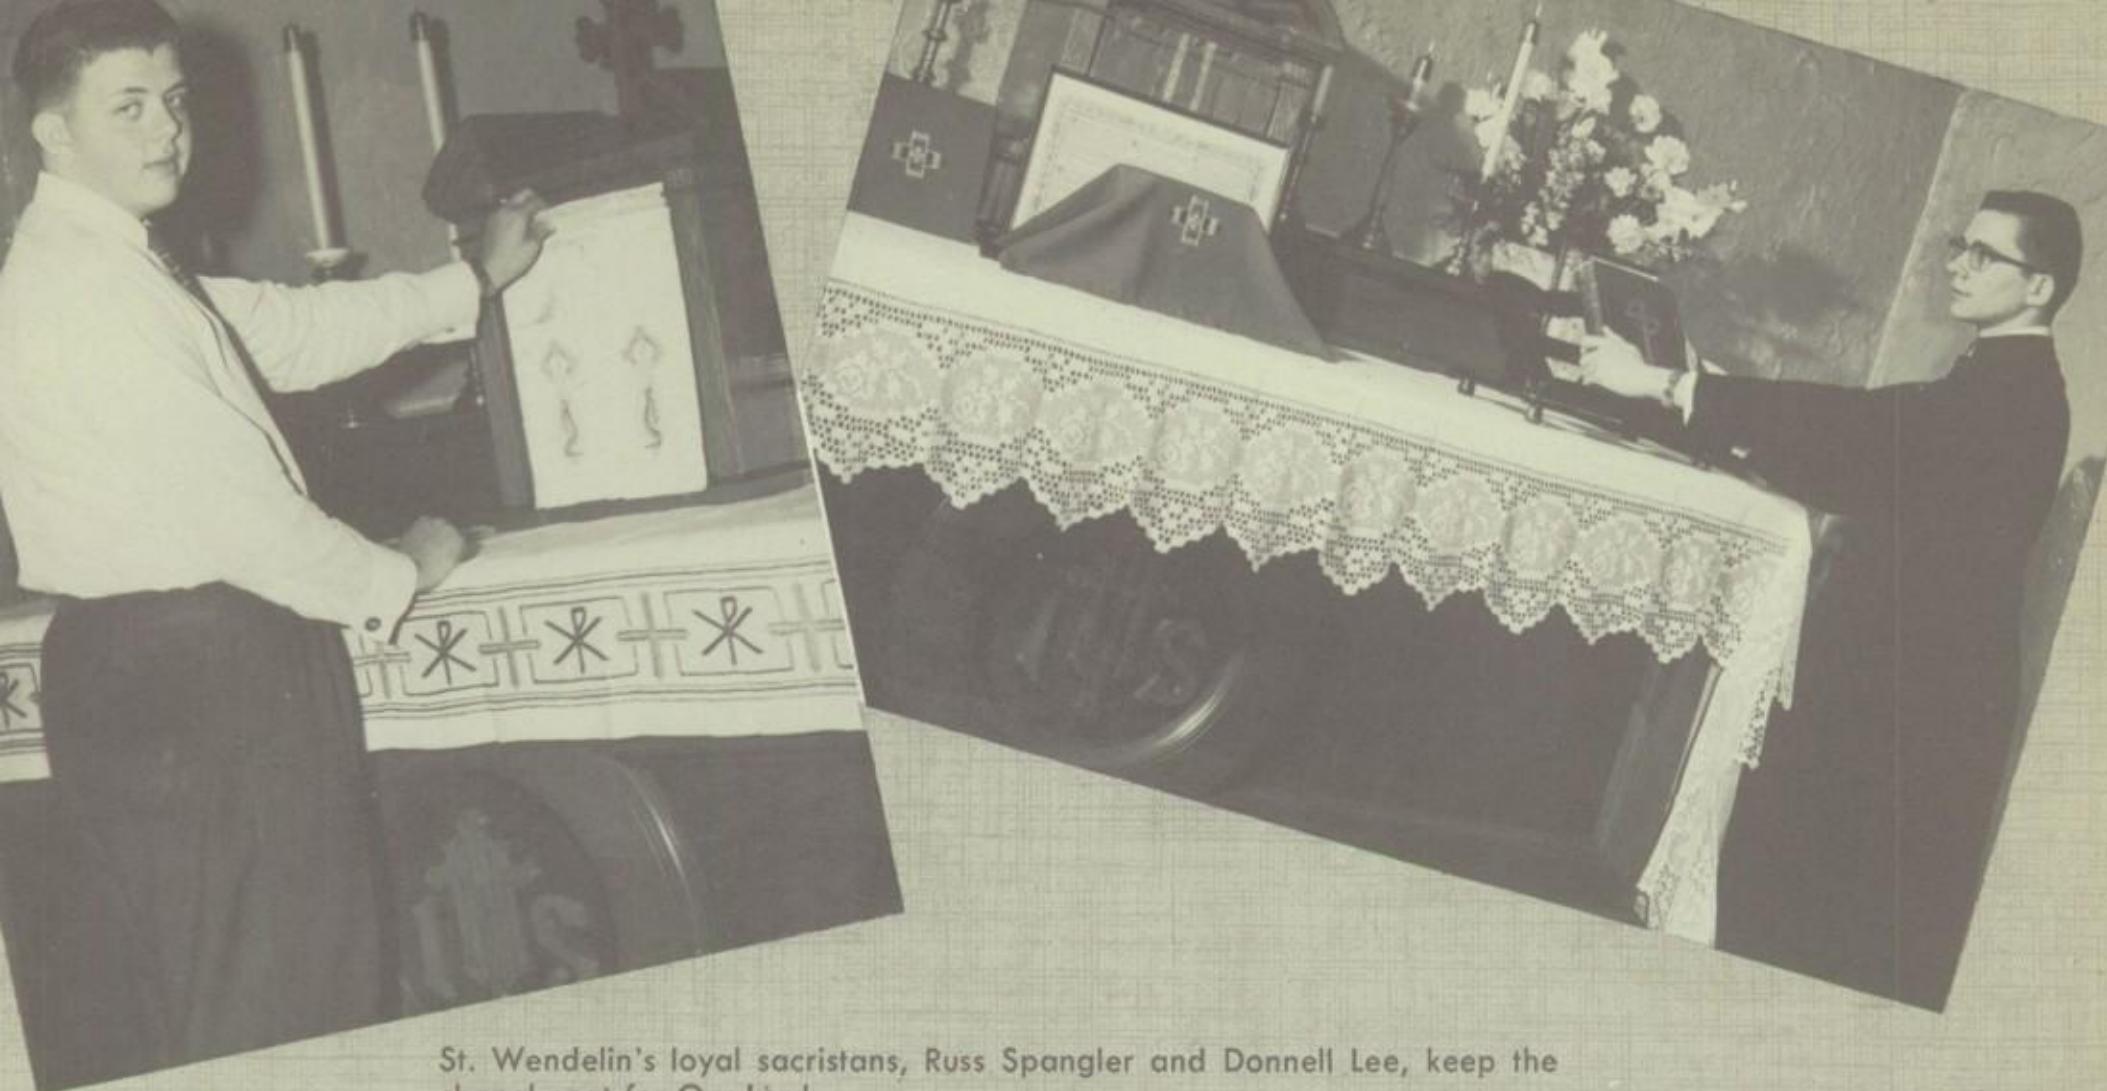

Having lost their guide at the Sao Paolo Exhibit, these Seniors receive critical information from a "noted art expert," Jeannine Sheibley, no less. Jim Ritzler, John Shaull, Mike Tiell, and Joyce Reiter seem to be learning much from Jeannine's instructions.

The Foslin presents a small group of seasoned Senior art lovers who give deep thought to one of the masterpieces in the Sao Paolo Exhibit at the Toledo Art Museum. The canvas enthusiasts include Janet Karcher, Janet Keiffer, LeRoy Kelbley, Don Kimmet, and Mike Huth.

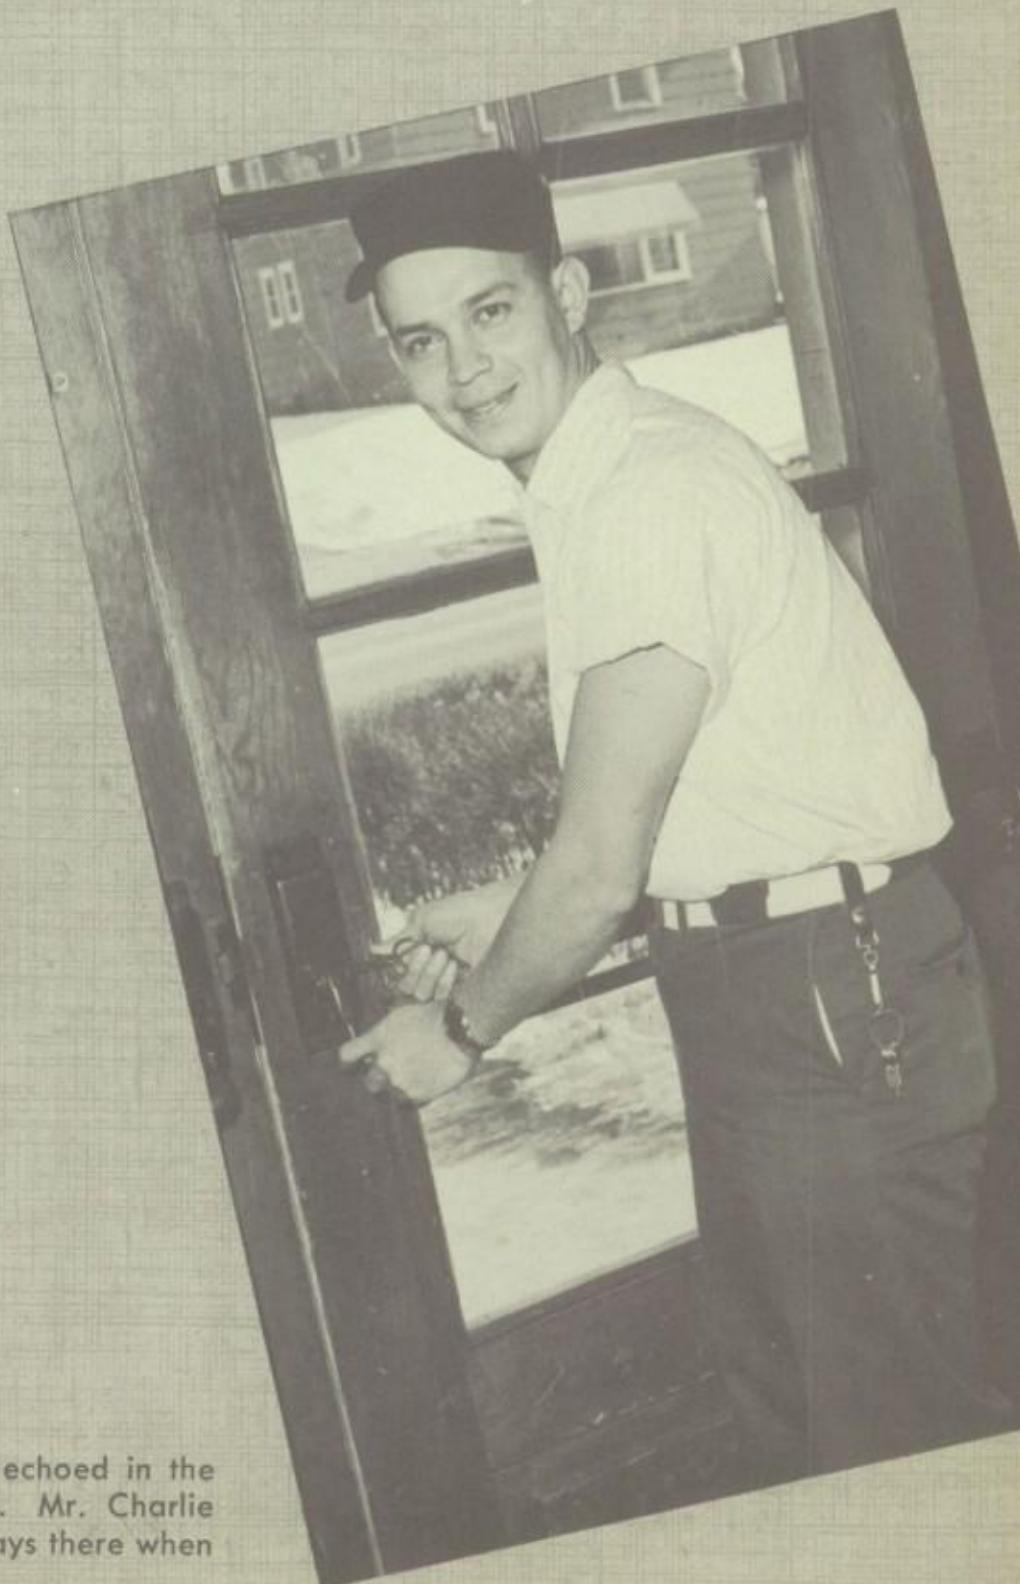

Making the difficult decision of which "senior special" to order are Dick Reinhart, Sue Huss, Joan Forristell, and Jeannine Sheibley. An assistant at the Studio of John K. Wakelin displays various pictures for their selection.

St. Wendelin's loyal sacristans, Russ Spangler and Donnell Lee, keep the chapel neat for Our Lord.

"Get out and vote" is the message of this prize-winning float designed by Jim Storey and Gary Howard for the Hallowe'en parade.

"Where's Charlie?" is the cry echoed in the halls if anything needs repair. Mr. Charlie Macias, school engineer, is always there when needed.

Preview Game

Willard, 6-0

The Mohawks gave evidence of great things to come as they battled Willard to a scoreless tie until the last 6 seconds. But Willard went over the goal line to make the final score 6-0.

Montgomery, 38-6

In the first outing of the season, the "Hawks" were overrun by the veteran Montgomery squad. The Saints were stubborn, but succumbed, 38-6. The Mohawks' lone score came on a beautifully executed pass from quarterback Gene Peluso to Bill Heinsman. The "Player of the Week" went to Jon Howbert for his good running gains.

Maumee Valley, 18-0

The Saints really wanted to do better, and they did. While they did not score, they were very close several times. The breaks made this game, and the breaks were against the Black and Gold. Although the statistics showed an even game, the Saints wound up on the short end, 18-0.

Kudos to Jack Baker for his fine ball handling in the center slot despite the mud and rain. This earned for him the "Player of the Week" award.

Tom Wolph

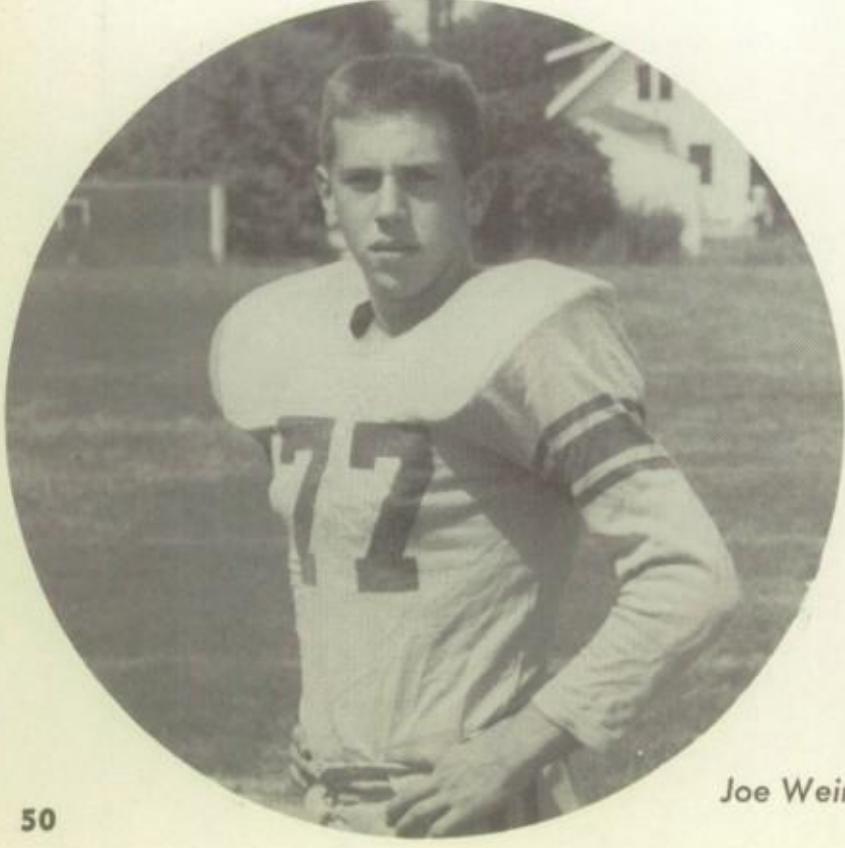

Gene Peluso

North Baltimore, 19-19

When the Mohawks went into this game, they had a losing streak of 25 straight games. The Saints went into the game as heavy underdogs. Somebody forgot to tell Gene Peluso, however, because the diminutive quarterback quickly scored. After a bitter fight the Mohawks yielded a touchdown. The Saints soon went ahead again as Jon Howbert dashed across the line. Once more North Baltimore tied the score. The game then became a struggle between the lines, as Stu Niebeck and Stef Wellstein excelled for the Saints. North Baltimore scored in the last 12 seconds, but our boys did not give up. Jon Howbert took the kickoff for a remarkable run of 80 yards for the score that tied up the game 19-19. Because of this run, Jon earned for himself the title "Player of the Week."

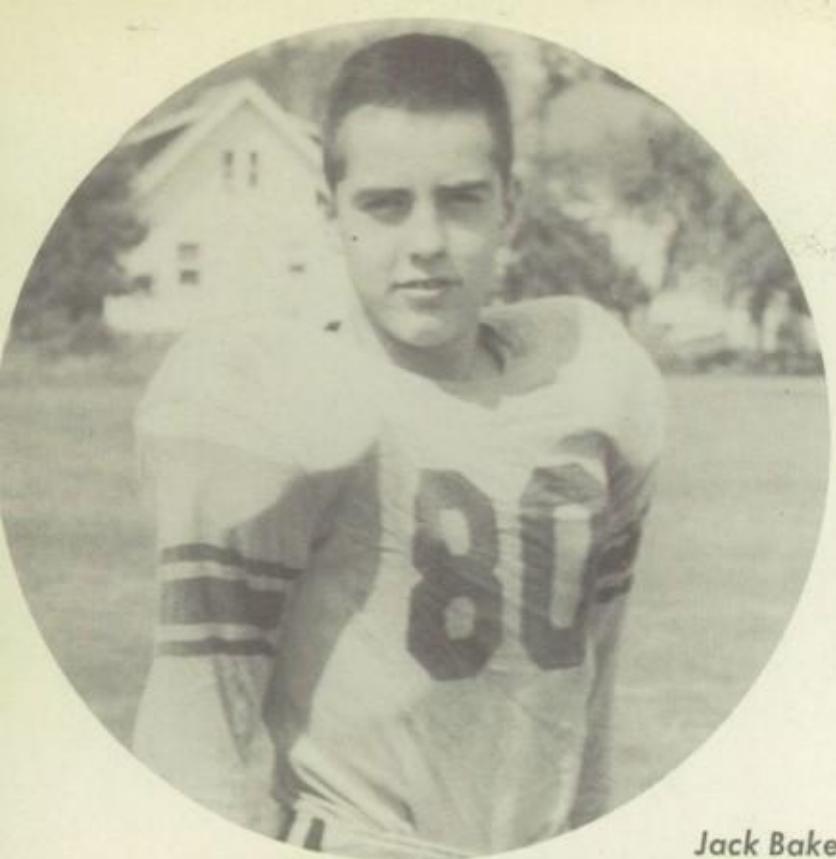

Ready! Aim! Fire, Jon!

St. Paul, Norwalk, 13-13

With the 26 game losing streak technically broken, the Saints were out to break it for sure. The defensive play of the Saints was superb, with Ray Huether and Jim Faber being the bulwarks. Even with this effort, the Saints were behind, 13-0, at the start of the fourth period. Then the Mohawks' attack started to roll with Jon Howbert scoring two touchdowns — one on a perfect pass thrown by Gene Peluso. This typical, late rally by the "Hawks," tied the score, 13-13. The score remained unchanged for the rest of the game, making it the Mohawks' second tie in a row. "Player of the Week" was awarded to Jon Howbert for the second time for his excellent work.

PRESENTING THE MOHAWKS' LINE-UP

Lakeside, 28-0
The Mohawks, after their first win, were eager to follow it up with a second but the weather, and the Lakeside Stonecrushers had other ideas. Playing in a dense fog, the Mohawks were forced to give ground steadily to a larger Lakeside team. At the end of the half the score read 14-0. Although the Saints gave a good account of themselves, the final score read 28-0 in Lakeside's favor. Coach Kenny Herman did not select a "Player of the Week," because of the impossible playing conditions, but he indicated that he was pleased with the showing of several underclassmen.

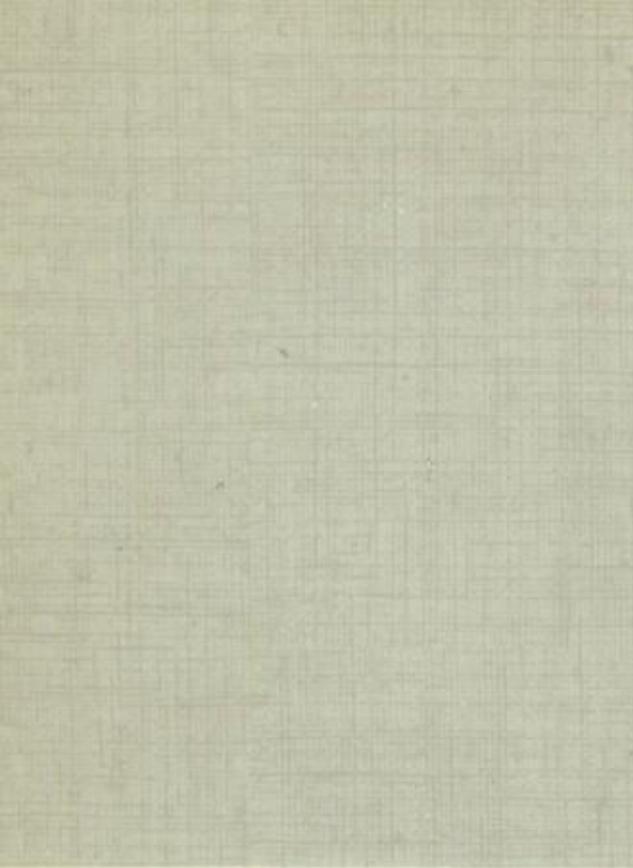

Jim Stewart

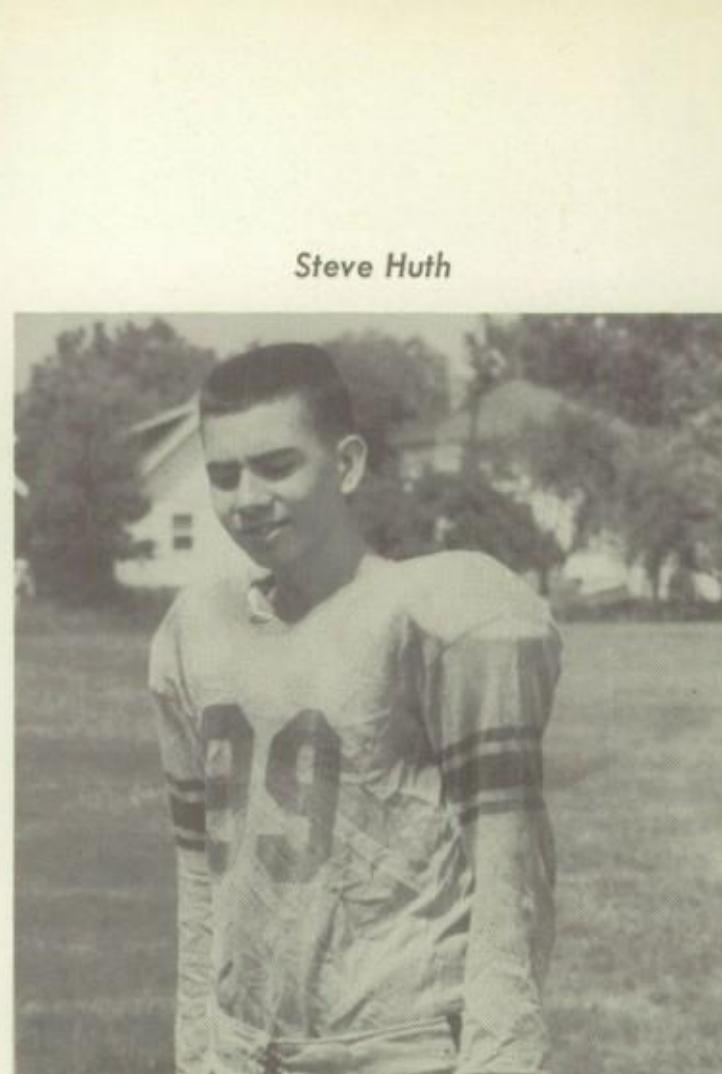

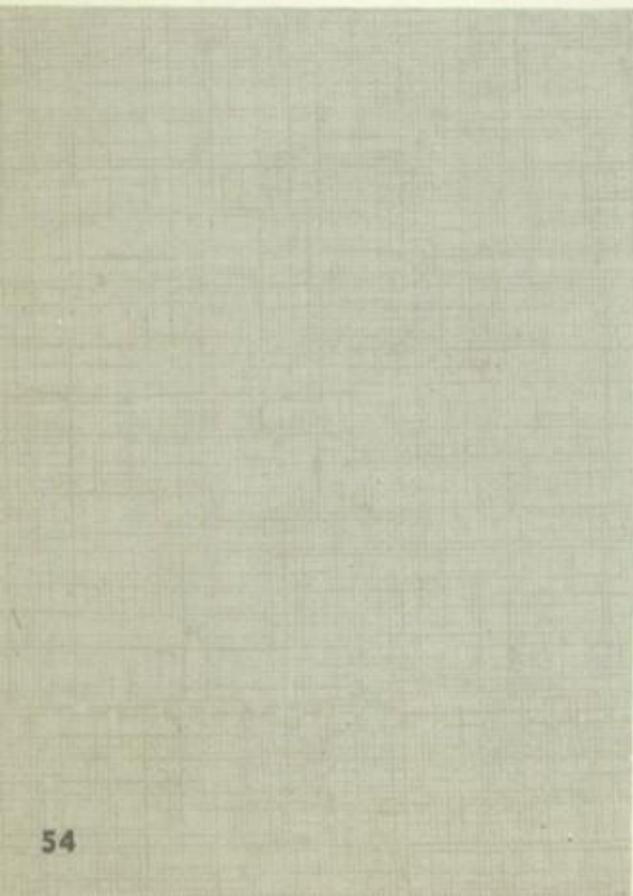

Jim Lynch

Bloomdale, 20-34

After two straight ties, the Saints were really "up" for this one. The "Hawks" kicked off, and after four downs took possession of the ball. Mike Huth scored the first touchdown for the Saints. A few minutes later, Jon Howbert scored the Mohawks' second T. D., after Tom Wolph and Dick Reinhart cleared the way. Joe Weingates plowed into Bloomdale's end zone for the Saints' third tally and the half-time score read 20-7. During the second half, Jon Howbert scored twice, Coach Kenny Herman was able to substitute freely. Bloomdale scored two more times, and the final tabulation found the St. Wendelin Mohawks on top, 34-20, for the Saints' first in four years. Mike Huth was chosen "Player of the Week," because of his timely blocking.

Maumee, 55-50

In the lid-lifter, the Saints won a squeaker by their heads-up play when the chips were down. Heinsman led all scorers with 16, while Lonsway had four scoring assists and Ritzler six rebounds. Final score 55-50.

Tom Hagenmaier, Forward

Risingsun, 42-39

Win number two came up as the Saints nipped Risingsun, 42-39. High-point man in this battle was Hagenmaier with 12. Hag also figured in the rebounds as he teamed with Lonsway to grab 19. Howard led in assists with five.

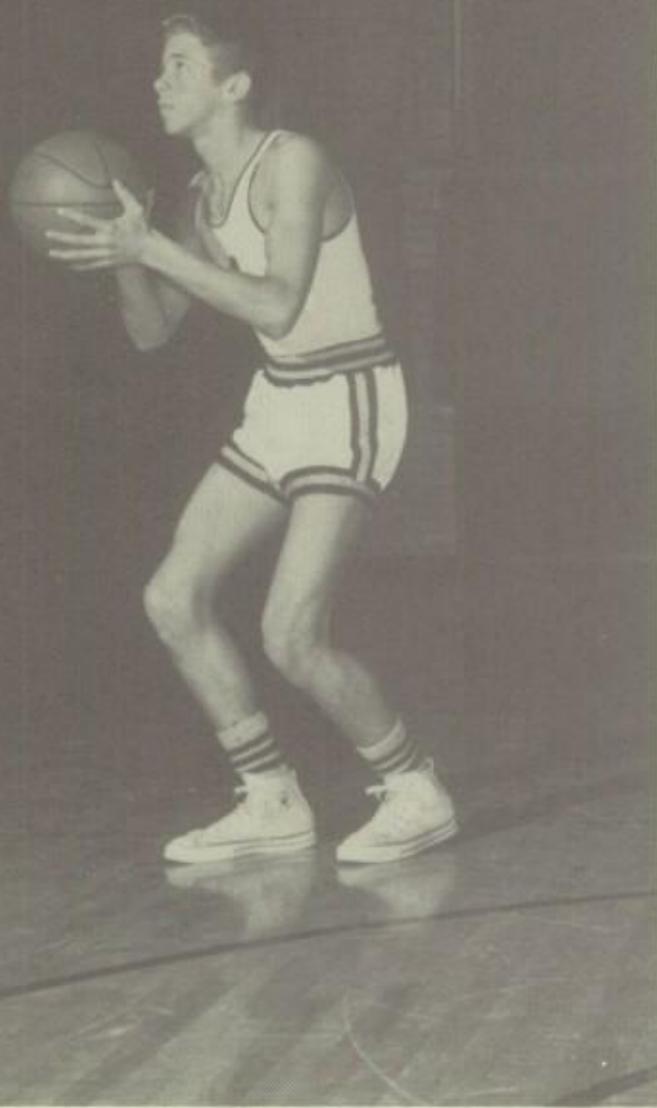

Jim Ritzler, Forward

Arcadia, 49-48

The Mohawk quintet did it again as they pulled a close one out of the fire, 49-48, against Arcadia. The rebounding leader was again Hagenmaier. Little Gary Howard led in assists and scoring as he won three assists and 14 points.

Norwalk St. Paul, 68-63

The Mohawks, used to pressure, grabbed another close one, 68-63, from Norwalk St. Paul. Howard led in assists with two while Lonsway pumped in 25 points. The hero was big Bill Marley who pulled down 14 rebounds.

Gary Howard, Guard

Toledo St. Francis, 67-47

The Mohawks lost to the highly talented Toledo St. Francis team, 67-47, in their worst loss of the season for the Saints. Diminutive Gary Howard led the Mohawks' scoring with eleven.

Cygnets, 79-53

This game marked the first easy victory of the year for the Mohawks as they coasted to a 79-53 win over Cygnets. In the one-sided affair Lonsway had 20 points and Marley once again displayed his crowd pleasing rebounding tactics.

Sandusky St. Mary's, 68-67

After it looked as though the Saints were done, they astounded Sandusky with 18 points in the last three minutes to win 68-67. Lonsway once more led the way as he scored 21 points and grabbed four rebounds.

Thompson, 82-75

Thompson, a much taller team, snapped the Mohawks' win streak at five, 82-75. Lone bright spot was Heinsman's 22 points.

Tom Hagenmaier dumps in another one as Gerry Lonsway and Jim Ritzler look on.

North Baltimore, 96-82

The Mohawks lost their third game to North Baltimore in a high scoring battle, 96-82. Heinsman amassed 30 points while Hagenmaier had two assists.

Gibsonburg, 64-54

When they overpowered Gibsonburg in the fourth period, the Mohawks clinched their seventh win, 64-54. Heinsman again led all scorers with 25. Wellstein grabbed 10 rebounds and had two assists as he sparked the win.

Hopewell-Loudon, 61-55

The Hopewell-Loudon powerhouse found its fifteen game winning streak crushed by the underdog Mohawks, 61-55. Ritzler led in scoring with 17 while burly Bill Marley grabbed nine rebounds.

Bill Heinsman, Guard

Lakeside, 70-55

The Lakeside Stonecrushers took the measure of the Mohawks as they pulled a minor upset, 70-55. Heinsman garnered 14 points and Marley pulled down several rebounds.

Fremont, 63-61

In the last second, Fremont managed a desperation shot that sank the Mohawks, 63-61. Lonsway and Marley contributed 14 points apiece in the losing cause while Howard got four assists. Lonsway also led rebounders with two.

Clyde, 71-70

Clyde dumped the Mohawks in a 71-70 contest. The game was played under unpleasant conditions since there were several disputable calls. Lonsway dominated the evening with 29 points and 14 rebounds. Howard had four assists.

Oak Harbor, 64-61

The Sandusky Bay Conference Champions ran into stiff opposition, but they skittled the Mohawks, 64-61. Steady Gerry Lonsway dumped in 19 points while grabbing off 11 rebounds. Team-man Hagenmaier chipped in with four assists.

Steff Wellstein, Forward

Hopewell-Loudon, 60-59

Hopewell-Loudon's Seneca County champions were handed a second defeat in a grudge game by the Saints, 60-59. "Big" Bill Heinsman led the attack with 23. "Leapin'" Tom Hagenmaier grabbed off 15 rebounds.

Gerry Lonsway, Center

Van Buren, 76-58

The mighty juggernaut of St. Wendelin rolled to an easy victory over the Van Buren quintet. Hagenmaier controlled the backboards as he got 10 rebounds. Howard had four assists, and Lonsway again led all scorers with 16.

Jackson, 78-47

The Saints, using reserves most of the time, ran over the hapless Jackson Redmen. Lonsway dunked in 13 as the regulars played less than half the game.

Members of the Mohawk Varsity gave the St. Wendelin rooters so many thrills throughout the 1958 basketball season take time out for a pose. Standing: Jim Ritzler, Gerry Lonsway, Bill Marley, Steff Wellstein, Tom Hagenmaier. Kneeling: Tom Wolph, Gary Howard, Bill Heinsman, Ray Sczesny, Gene Peluso, and Coach Marty Vieth.

Demonstrating the super concern they give the basketball uniforms are Steve Huth and Charles Wolph, student managers for the Mohawks.

MOHAWK RESERVES. The Foslin presents the Reserves who under the guidance of Coach Kenny Herman have racked up an impressive record during the season. # Reaching for the Stars?

★ OF COURSE YOU ARE, why not? It means you are ambitious . . . looking forward to the years ahead to whatever they will bring . . . to the big challenge of making your own way . . . to reach the top in whatever field you select.

IT'S GOOD — this ambition — because, properly channeled, it leads to accomplishment, and security, and all the good things in life you have a right to expect.

YOUR FIRST STEP is to select a job in which your talents can be explored and used most fully.

YOUR INTERESTS may lie in, say, the field of electronics . . . or hydraulics, chemistry, mechanical engineering . . . or they may lean toward office work, or administration . . . or many of numerous interesting and rewarding occupations. Whatever your dreams, whatever your ambitions, we believe you can fulfill them at Auto-Lite, because Auto-Lite offers many opportunities in these and many other fields. Auto-Lite is the world's largest independent manufacturer of automotive electrical equipment, but that tells only part of the story. In short, we believe we are big enough, diversified enough to meet any demands your ambition calls for.

WHEN YOU COME TO TALK to us, bring your ambition . . . and your dreams. We're interested in young people who are reaching for the stars.
